

Miss Birmingham Pageant

2011 Scholarship Rules

If awarded a scholarship in the 2011 Miss Birmingham Pageant, I agree to the following:

1. I will provide the Director of the Miss Birmingham Pageant with a letter accepting my scholarship no later than January 7, 2011 mailed to 513 Saint Lauren Way, Birmingham, AL 35242 in order to receive my scholarship.
2. I understand that all scholarship monies won will be paid directly to my college or university. The acceptance letter required in Rule 1 should indicate the bursar's office address of the college or university and should also indicate the student account number of the recipient. In no instance will the money be paid directly to the recipient.
3. I will have my college or university send enrollment verification to the Directors of the Miss Birmingham Organization at the time I accept my scholarship award.
4. I understand that all scholarship awards to participants, other than the winner, will be available to be dispersed upon the timely receipt of the acceptance letter from the recipient AND receipt of the enrollment verification from the recipient's college or university.
5. The winner's scholarship award(s) will be dispersed on the following schedule upon timely receipt of the acceptance letter AND receipt of the enrollment verification from the winner's college or university: • 50% immediately; • 50% the week following the 2011 Miss Alabama Pageant.
6. In the event that the winner is named Miss Alabama 2011, no successor will be named.
7. If the winner resigns, in good standing, from the position of Miss Birmingham 2011 prior to her appearance in the Miss Alabama pageant, she will forfeit any further scholarship winnings to which she would have been otherwise entitled. Her successor will be entitled to the winner's scholarship amounts not yet dispersed. If the winner resigns the position of Miss Birmingham 2010 after representing Birmingham in the 2011 Miss Alabama Pageant, there will be no successor named and she will forfeit any remaining scholarship amounts to which she would have otherwise been entitled.
8. If the Directors of the Miss Birmingham pageant due to a contract violation remove the winner from the position, she will forfeit all scholarship amounts awarded her by the Miss Birmingham Pageant during her tenure as Miss Birmingham. Any funds previously awarded her must be repaid to the Miss Birmingham Scholarship Fund.
